One of the core values of the MOM-Foundation is to live a life in service to others. When we are faced with a pandemic of this magnitude, the MOM Foundation wants to show our willingness and ability to do something.

So many people selflessly put themselves on the frontline to care for others with no consideration for their personal safety. Our nurses, doctors, police officers, firefighters, emergency service workers, grocery store clerks, restaurant workers, and first responders go to work every day with one intention, to take care of others. We are incredibly thankful for their service.

With a shortage of medical supplies, the MOM-Foundation stepped up to the plate immediately to make masks and distribute them to anyone in need of a face mask, including Rockland Child Care, South Orangetown Parents Group, Daughters of Saint Ann, Dominican Sisters of Blauvelt and families in the community. If you need a face mask, please call 845-421-0969. You can visit our website at www.MOM-Foundation.org.
